About Kristian Olsen

A vision for eyewear

An optical frame is more than a necessity for sight. It is more than an accessory. Eyewear is a part of your personality. It is an extension of yourself.

Kristian Olsen embodies this by offering great looking, high-quality eyewear to express yourself. That is our promise, with every perfect pair.

The story

Eye-catching since 1989

Kristian Olsen started in 2013, but our story goes back to 1989, with roots in timeless Scandinavian design. Since 2015 our team has expanded with people from different countries around the globe. Because of their local knowledge and expertise, we now create collections adjusted to local preferences and personal tastes. Consumers all over Europe like what they see and that explains our continuous growth.
